

Level 2 Diploma in Professional Cookery

Course Level: Level 2

Campus: Stafford

Subject Type: Hospitality & Catering

Course Overview:

Master essential cooking techniques, food safety protocols, and kitchen management skills. Develop proficiency in preparing diverse dishes and elevate your culinary expertise.

What's Covered:

This full-time qualification is intended for people with an interest and enthusiasm for preparing and cooking food and for serving food and drink in the Hospitality Industry. The qualifications can lead to further study at Level 3.

This vast industry has a current skill shortage. The job opportunities in cooking and serving food as a Chef or Waiter/ess or working as a bar person are almost assured.

This sector, which is both modern and exciting, has so many areas in which to work, you can be spoilt for choice e.g. Hotel, Restaurants, Leisure Centres, Pubs, In-Store Catering and Cruise Ships to name a few.

During this course you will also cook and serve food and drink in a professional manner in the College's training kitchens and restaurant, which are open to the public on a daily basis.

A series of units make up this course, some examples are:

Investigate the catering and hospitality industry

- Food safety
- Applying workplace skills
- Prepare and cook meat and offal
- Prepare and cook poultry
- Prepare and cook fish and shellfish
- Produce hot and cold desserts and puddings
- Food and beverage service skills

Entry Requirements:

You will have 4 GCSEs at grade 3 or above. A Level 1 Professional Chef Diploma would be an advantage, however, if you have a keen interest in the subject and commitment to succeed, your entry requirements will be discussed at interview.

Assessment Information:

Through practical assessments and theory assignments.

Fees and Financial Support:

This course is free for anyone aged 16 – 18.

College Maintenance Allowance (CMA):

100%
pass rate
